Mokena Grade Choir Makes 1957 Debut in PTA Skit

The Mokena Grade School choir opened its fourth choral year when it provided the musical background for "Mom Is Busting Out All Over," a musical skit by Marcia Kritchevsky, as presented by the PTA Tuesday evening. Mrs. Robert Hunnigford directed the pantomime, while Glenn L. Miers directed the musical portion.

The 36-voice chorus is composed of girls from the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades. In the past, boys from these grades were included but the director has indicated that there is sufficient interest among the boys to organize a boys glee club. The plans for such a group are now being made.

Altho the four songs presented Tuesday evening were sung in unison, Mr. Miers pointed out that as of yesterday the choir began working on part songs as well as unison numbers and is looking forward to another successful year.

Seek Red Truck Used By Vandals In Homer Twp.

There have been several cases of vandalism reported recently in Homer. The latest attack occurred last Tuesday evening when a red pick-up truck rammed into the front door of the Hadley school building. The door was so badly damaged that it had to be replaced. A post near the school was smeared with red paint.

A resident in the neighborhood who heard the crash, saw the red truck, closely followed by a late model Ford car, turn the corner near the school, slow up near the Bruce Anderson drive, then proceed west by the Gus Termunde place where the mail box was knocked down. They then turned north on Cedar road, it was reported, to the first corner where they turned around and sped south toward New Lenox.

Earlier the same evening several youths were observed picking up rocks and placing them in a red truck similar to the one described.

The acts of vandalism occurred close to the forest preserve where the shelter house was burned recently and also about a mile from the new Paul home which was stripped of plumbing and electric fixtures.

Sheriff's deputies who were notified, kept watch for some time after the incident, but the culprits did not return. Later, a residence marker in front of the Harold Mohny home was demolished.

Gets Complaint On Phony "Cop"

Complaints have been received by Mokena Police Chief James Smetana of a man masquerading as a policeman and attempting to halt cars on Wolf road.

The man wears a blue uniform shirt, and a policeman's cap, according to those who have seen him. He also wears a star.

The car he drives has been described as a brown 1949 or 1950 Nash.

So far as has been learned no one has obeyed his injunctions to pull off the road so investigators do not know whether he intends a shakedown or an out and out stickup.

Chief Smetana urges motorists to use care when approached by anyone pretending to be a policeman. Cars used in the communities in this area for police work are plainly marked as such.

Map Salesman Parks In Wrong Direction

A map salesman who calls on schools with his wares could have saved $5 Monday had he paid more attention to directions. He was headed west on Front st., in Mokena and parked on the south instead of the north side of that thoroughfare in front of the postoffice.

That was the wrong side to park on. Police Chief James Smetana gave the driver, Gordon Luce, 52, of Terre Haute, a ticket. A fine of $3 and costs was imposed by Justice of the Peace Gus Werner.

Cyclist Bruised When He Runs Into Halted Automobile

A young cyclist rode into the side of a halted car near Division and Third sts. in Mokena late Monday afternoon but escaped with but minor bruises.

He is Michael Mansfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Mansfield, 11 years old of 141 Revere st., Mokena. Michael and his 14 year old brother, Richard were riding along Third, with Richard in front. Suddenly Michael is said to have made a sudden turn.

The driver of a west bound car, Police Commissioner James Battle of New Lenox, was traveling slowly because of the two cyclists and when he saw Michael start his turn, stopped the car. The bike ran into the side of the car and Michael fell off.

The boy said he was not hurt but Battle took him home and insisted that the lad be taken to a doctor. An examination revealed that the boy had a bruised elbow, according to the report of the accident taken by Police Chief Joseph Smetana.

Harold Scheers of Green Garden Have Charming Visitor From India

A most charming girl from India is visiting in Will county for three weeks. She is one of a group of International Farm Youth Exchange (IFUE) where-by a representative of the U. S. goes to another country and in return a member of that country visits the United States.

The visitor here is Miss Rosie Brar of Lucknow. She is 20 years old, and is one of a family of nine, her parents, four sisters and two brothers. Three sisters are graduates of various colleges and one is in her junior year. Rosie has finished her second year. She had conducted adult classes in education and worked in the Young Farmers Association—an organization similar to our county 4-H clubs. She speaks English fluently, and also Hindi and Punjabi. Being a Sikh religion, she eats no beef, but enjoys the wide variety found in American menus.

She says that while they have radios, they have no television. They see American movies, but she feels that they do not actually portray the true American way of life. She wishes to do what she can to carry the true feeling of our people, and helpful knowledge she may gain, back to her own people. Literacy is spreading thru the Extension Service in practice there.

The costume worn by young women in her country is very striking and beautiful. There are three parts to the costume—a blouse plainly cut but attractive, a slip which is a slim garment extending from waist to ankles, and the sari—of six to nine yards of material which is draped into a graceful outside garment. Saris are draped differently in different states. The colors are lovely, and must be seen to be appreciated.

This attractive inhabitant of that far-off land is especially interested in providing educational and cultural activities for rural women in her community. This exchange is a project sponsored by the Ford Foundation and is basically a cultural exchange—not an academic one. It is their object to learn more about the attitudes, hopes and problems of our rural people, but only as a way of better understanding, to which they are dedicated in the only way to gain world peace.

The visitor is living at the present with the Harold Scheer family in Green Garden township. She is living as one of the family, participating in their regular routine and fits very well and easily into the role of another daughter. She will stay with one more family in Illinois before sailing for home on Nov. 2 and will take back with her the good will of the American people with whom she has come in contact.

On harking back to days of old, Mrs. Swisher read an interesting true experience of a trip taken in a surrey with a fringe on the top. She showed pictures of the surrey in which the trip was taken in 1914.

Highlighting the meeting was a scientific and informative lecture on dwarf iris by Mrs. Edmond Doerren. Slides of dwarf iris taken in Middleburg, Ind., the headquarters of the National Society of Dwarf Iris, were shown.

The birthday song was sung for Mesdames Memhard, Mancke and Brueggeman.

Mrs. Swisher was in charge of the program and displayed a white aster with 12 blooms. She also presented each member with a pansy and described its legend.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION
Blair, Wisc., Press: "Every government official or board that handles public money should publish at regular intervals an accounting of it, showing where and how each dollar was spent. We hold this to be a fundamental principle of democratic government."

Boone, Iowa, News-Republican: "... the experts say that seat belts really do make driving safer. Cornell (New York) University's committee on transportation safety research has this to say: 'From more than 5,000 case histories of injury-producing accidents we have reached conclusions which should remove all doubt of the effectiveness of belts in minimizing injuries in automobile accidents. In actual use properly designed and installed seat belts will increase a motorist's chance of escaping injury by nearly 60 per cent.'"

Beaver Falls, Pa., News-Tribune: "Taxpayers are consistent plains about the amount being in one respect. None ever come too low."

Sisterville, W. Va., Journal: "... the Government collected during just the past seven years $27 billion more than it collected during the previous 158 years."

Bartow, Fla., Democrat: "Today the trend of many, many people to assume that the federal government should furnish the money... your money and of our schools, for furnishing my money... for the financing subsidies to farmers, for building roads and in other ways supplying us with things which early citizens once considered their personal obligations is already breaking down the rights of states to maintain a normal degree of sovereignty, which was a cardinal principal among gifted men who wrote the Constitution of these United States... too great a leaning in this direction can only bring about socialization..."

East Weymouth, Mass., Gazette: "The Postoffice Department is the biggest business in the country and spends about $3-billion a year. It is, of course, a socialistic enterprise and there is no competition so there is no real pressure for efficiency or the elimination of waste."

AN ALARMING PROPOSAL!
There is good reason for alarm over the recent recommendation of the Commission on Government Security that would make it a federal crime to publish information which had, by means, "leaked" past government security arrangements.

All responsible American journalists recognize the need for safeguarding information that would affect the national security or defense. But once a secret escapes thru government doors, thru some failure of its custodians, federal power to suppress it by fines and prison sentences upon America's citizens and press could be terribly more dangerous than the security "leak" itself.

History makes it tragically clear that punishing the press for publishing facts is fatal to a nation's freedom. Aware of this, the framers of the first ten amendments of the U. S. Constitution provided that "Congress shall make no law... abridging the freedom of speech or of the press." And this principle has precedence as the first article of our Bill of Rights—not to favor the press but to perpetuate our people's freedom to be informed.

The violation of this principle proposed by the so-called Wright Commission, would reduce our national law to the level of Peron's dictatorship in Argentina, where news reporters and their papers were subject to prosecution for the crime of truth.

The "right to know" is an inherent right of the American people and if that right is ever lost we shall no longer be a free people.

PRESIDENT CALLS OUT TROOPS

We prefer to see President Eisenhower wearing golf shoes than military boots.

We prefer to see Mr. Eisenhower with a putter in his hand than a saber.

We think he looks better in a golf cart than on a white horse.

We thought Mr. Eisenhower wouldn't be persuaded to use bayonets to enforce a court decree. Less than three weeks ago he said he could not conceive of any situation where force would be needed to bring about integration in schools.

Using the armed might of the nation to carry on neighborhood police work is potent stuff. And it could become habit forming.

Suppose a farmer thumbs his nose at the decrees of the federal agricultural department? Are troops to be called out to see that he conforms?

The presence of federal troops surrounding a high school, with loaded rifles and bayonets at the ready, is a strange picture in the United States. It may bring about integration while the troops or the threat of troops remain but to our way of thinking it will not make the integration law anymore palatable to the South and the action could fan resentment against the statute to a flame of such intensity that it would never die. Mr. Eisenhower says that disobedience of the court decree and resistance to integration furnishes the Commies with material for propaganda. In view of the fact that the Commies charge us with anything and everything which they believe may serve their propaganda mill it really makes no difference what we do. The Reds twist words and acts to suit themselves.

For instance, reports from Moscow via radio Wednesday morning described the sending of federal troops to Little Rock as another move to deprive the negroes of their freedom!

U. S. Senator Celler of New York has proposed amending the "civil rights legislation" to cover practically everything in the book and specifically give the president power to use federal troops to enforce all its provisions and all federal laws.

That is silly talk, of course, and it is regrettable that a man who thinks and talks silly should be in a position to pass any kind of laws. There can be tragic consequences as a result of silly talk.

Remember a man named Hitler? Remember those jokers, Lenin and Stalin? Many laughed at their pronouncements and dismissed them as silly talk. But history shows that many millions have been led into chains by silly talk.

We do not like the idea of the federal government using to see that its laws are enforced and obeyed. Such action could be the forerunner of dictatorship.

We agree with Mr. Eisenhower that mob rule is not to be countenanced in any area.

We do not agree, however that martial rule is necessary.

It is our belief that if given time and let alone the South will work out a solution for the integration problem that will be satisfactory to the majority of the whites and blacks. Integration is a problem in many northern areas too that probably only time will resolve. The northern people have a better opportunity to do this, it would seem, because no one as yet is holding a pistol to their heads.

Welcome Tea Given For Staff At Cooper School

by Rusty Wilson

Cooper's Grove school is very proud of its new teaching staff this year, which is now handling an enrollment about twice the size of last year's. For the purpose of introducing the teachers and mothers to each other, a welcoming tea was held in the bright little school house Wednesday evening, Sept. 11.

The cheerful room was filled with nearly 80 men and women, some newly arrived parents from the village of Country Club Hills, some teachers from last year, some mothers from nearby farm lands, and some members of the school board. After an introductory speech by the Mothers club president, Mrs. Thomas, a color movie was shown the group. The movie had been taken at a school picnic with a camera given the school by funds from the Mothers Club. The impromptu scenes and sights caught by the roving camera were in turn hilarious and heart touching.

Flowers and food brought by the ladies of the club filled the long white table with color and shapes of beauty. The new teachers were surrounded by groups of mothers during the teatime, all asking questions and expressing their friendly pride in the growing school system.

The teaching staff for 1957 is: Principal, Mr. Tobin; 1st grade, Mrs. Woodstrup, 2nd grade, Mrs. Davis, 3rd, Mrs. Ramseyer; 4th, Mrs. Underwood; 5th, Mr. Kubinski; 6th, Mr. Ruehl, and 7th and 8th grade, Mr. Cole.

The Homewood Chamber of Commerce sent its public relations man, Mr. McLaughlin, to the tea to express his town's interest and desire to help the new citizens with their local problems.

Bremen High Institutes New Training Program

In order to implement instruction at Bremen community high school, a program of supervision and in-service training has been instituted, according to Supt. T. R. Birkhead.

Donald G. Madson, new administrative assistant and supervisor of instruction, has charge of the program, which consists of visitations in the classrooms during actual teaching situations. These visitations will be followed by individual and group conferences, with teachers and supervisors jointly discussing methods of improving teaching and learning techniques.

Another facet of the program is the in-service training in which the faculty is divided into twelve committees with each committee set up to study a particular professional problem of concern to the entire group. Faculty members will do research on the problems centered on the betterment of instruction and report and discuss their findings before the entire faculty in a series of twelve faculty meetings.

A professional library is in the process of compilation at the school to aid teachers in collecting research materials.

Citizens' Committee of Cooper Grove School Has Full Program

The Citizen's Committee of Coopers Grove School district No. 160 held its regular monthly meeting at the Coopers Grove school, 184th and Central, last Monday, Sept. 16. It was faced with a full agenda, which included a special election, plans for a forthcoming dance and the starting of Cub Scouting in the school district.

Thru efforts of the chairmen, Ray Bergmann and Hazel Marquardsen, the fund raising and social committees of the Citizens Committee are well on their way to making a Nov. 2 "Hard Times" dance a reality. Committee members and representatives of the Mothers' club have worked the details down to where the sale of tickets is now under way. Generous donations have made it possible for these groups to offer a gas clothes dryer and a portable TV set as the two top prizes as well as many additional awards. Any one wishing to buy tickets may get in touch with Ray Bergmann at Homewood 5664 or address the Citizens Committee Box 46, Tinley Park.

The youth activities committee headed by John Kovach, is planning the first meeting of parents of boys interested in Cub Scouting. This group has been meeting with district scout leaders since July. Letters have been sent to parents asking they attend the first meeting, which was held Sept. 23. Additional parent meetings are to be held Sept. 30 and Oct. 7. It is hoped that the first pack meeting of the boys can be held by mid-October.

The Citizens Committee, members of the school board and the Mother's club were all given a hearty "well done" by George Hein, chairman of the building and grounds committee, for their efforts in getting the four school buildings in the district in top condition for the opening of the new school year.

Prior to a special election, the resignation of our former president, John Snyder, was read to the committee. Mr. Snyder had served the Citizens Committee as president during its first year of organization and was reelected at the regular June election for another term of one year. But immediately afterward, Mr. Snyder was transferred to Indianapolis by his company. After accepting his resignation, the Citizens' Committee unanimously elected Vice President William Marquardsen to the vacant president seat, after which they elected Mr. Larry Simon as Vice President.

Anyone living in the school district, wishing to join this very active group of civic minded people or wishing information of the committee are welcome to attend the meetings held the third Monday of each month at the Coopers Grove school, 184th and Central, or may write to the Coopers Grove Citizens' Committee, Box 46, Tinley Park.

Suburban Home Show Will Open at Midlothian Oct. 10

The first annual "All-South Suburban Home Show" will open at Midlothian, for a four day run beginning Oct. 10. The show, the first such to be held for a suburban area, will be held at St. Christopher hall, 147th and Keeler.

According to show officials, there will be 76 exhibit booths as well as Armed Forces exhibits, guest disk jockeys and musical entertainment. The show, which is sponsored by the Midlothian Businessmen's Association, has arranged for police protection of the 1,000-car parking lot to give visitors the utmost in service.

The purpose of the show is to bring to the public of the South Suburban areas all the latest and up-to-date interior and exterior furnishings and improvements by local merchants and distributing firms.

A uniform motor vehicle code will bring to motorists the same regulations in Illinois and Indiana as those in New York or California, explains the Chicago Motor club. Eliminating confusion increases the margin of safety.

Handicapped Children Council Views Films

The regular monthly meeting of the Council for Handicapped Children was held at the Blackhawk Elementary School in Park Forest.

The group enjoyed a film, "The Practising School Social Worker", shown by John Nebo, state consultant, education for exceptional children and visiting counselor program. The film dealt with social and emotional problems of school children. According to Mr. Nebo, there is one social worker per school population of between 1,000 and 2,000 in Illinois.

Mrs. Rita Somerman, of the National Council of Jewish Women, showed films which were taken at Handicamp, the day camp for handicapped children, sponsored by the NCJW during the months of July and August.

Phillip Trees, first president of the Council, resigned. Mr. Trees is moving to Indianapolis. Charles TenBroeck, vice president, will now serve as president for the remainder of the 1957 term. Mrs. Charles Sabena of Crete was elected recording secretary. Mrs. Herman Smith, former recording secretary, resigned because of the forthcoming arrival of a baby.

The Council, which was organized a little less than a year ago, is the only one of its kind in this area. Its membership consists of parents of all types of handicapped children and covers the entire south suburban Cook County and Northern Will County. Parents of handicapped children and other persons interested in working with the Council may call Mr. TenBroeck at SKyline 5-5923.

Push Work On Texas Eastern Pipeline In Area

Pipeline crews have begun preliminary work in the area on a 14 inch pipeline that will connect Chicago and the midwestern market area with a new source of petroleum products from Gulf coast and Mid-Continent refining areas. Pipe has been delivered all along the right of ways and a large portion of this section of the line is being built by Western Pipeline Incorporated, of Austin, Texas for Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Shreveport La., one of the world's largest pipeline companies.

When completed, the line will reach to Chicago from Seymour, Ind., where it will connect with the Little Big Inch pipeline, built by the Government during World War II and now owned by Texas Eastern. Completion is expected shortly and the line will be ready for operation immediately thereafter, according to Millard K. Neptune, executive vice president of Texas Eastern's petroleum products division.

The line will pass approximately two miles east of Mokena and Orland Park and will carry clean petroleum products such as aviation and automobile gasolines, jet fuel, tractor and diesel fuel, various grades of burner oils and, in addition, will make available new supplies of liquefied petroleum gases. The line is about the same distance west of Tinley as it is east of Mokena and Orland Park. It is six miles east of New Lenox.

Texas Eastern holds to a "leave it as you found it" policy when constructing a new line, Mr. Neptune said. This means removing, as nearly as possible, all traces of construction work and then maintaining the pipeline rights of way in a clean, neat and efficient manner, he added.

When the new line is completed, Texas Eastern will be operating more than 1,700 miles of pipeline in petroleum products service. In addition, the company will have more than 5,800 miles of pipe in natural gas service, giving the company a consolidated system of more than 7,500 miles of pipeline covering some 14 states from the Mexican border to New York and, thru the lines of an affiliated company, reaching as far north as Boston.

The first fall meeting of the south suburban branch of the Chicago Dental society will take place Tuesday, Oct. 1 in the Elk's lodge, 2417 York st., Blue Island.

The speaker will be a professor of Loyola university. The subject is "Stress". It is especially timely because of the research being done on the close relationship of stress of emotions to the physical well being.

Membership in the branch is drawn from: Tinley Park, Harvey, Chicago Heights, Homewood, Blue Island, Richton Park, Lansing, Calumet City, Park Forest, Evergreen Park, Dolton, Matteson, Oak Lawn, Lemont, Worth, Posen, Habel Crest, and South Holland.

Christian Church Now Has Sunday School Services

The brand new Country Club Hills Christian church, 179th and Thomas Lane, Tinley Park, has planned a complete Sunday School education. Eight women have volunteered to teach the children of different ages and one mother will care for infants in her home during the adult worship services.

Fathers have volunteered to set up chairs, clean floors, and transport heavy goods for the Sunday school which is being held in one of the grade schools. Later, it is hoped to move the church piano into the Sunday School room and use an antique portable organ for the adult services.

So much enthusiasm has been shown since the first church meeting that the steering committee has already begun dreaming about land purchase and building funds. While this is a long time away, the spirit of the 65 persons attending the first church service was amazingly energetic and hopeful.

The first service was held Sept. 15, in the fourth grade school building. The service was conducted by Dr. J. J. VanBoskirk, an ordained clergyman, trained at Phillips and Chicago Universities.

He was sent to the village by the Church Federation of Greater Chicago, which aids communities of 1,000 homes in setting up churches hospitable to Christians of varying backgrounds.

The following are responsible for the first service held: Clarence and LaVern Beam, Ray and Betty Bergmann, Robert and Orlean Campbell, Arthur and Dorothy Ebert, William and Clair Jirik, Kenneth and Alice MacKenzie, William and Hazel Marquardsen, Al and Marilyn Matthews, Norman and Joyce Olson, Robert and Eleanor Otto, William and Hazel Ramseyer, Harley and Mary Sonne, Carl and Elaine Timmerman, and Donald and Rusty Wilson.

Orland Group Host to 4-H Clubs at Picnic

by Violet Mrosek

Members of the Orland Boys 4H club entertained at a community 4H picnic which was attended by about ninety people from the Orland Park, Tinley Park and Mokena areas at the Milton Bettenhausen farm, Sunday afternoon.

The 240 acre farm, where Mr. Bettenhausen "thought" 4 Hrs could find enough room for activity, was ideal for the occasion. The weather was perfect and everyone enjoyed themselves. Games, such as baseball, horseshoe pitching, badminton and volley ball were played and the very young kept a swing busy. A two inning baseball game between the fathers and sons provided some especially exciting and tense moments. The sons walked away with the first inning, but the determined fathers, when they found their footing, really gave the boys a shellacking in the second inning. The dinner call and approaching chore time brought all play to an end.

A delicious picnic dinner was served from a hayrack, and tables and benches provided for comfortable eating and visiting.

Members of the committee who planned the picnic were: Mr. and Mrs. Bettenhausen, Roy and Don; the Junior leaders and their mothers, Mrs. Richard Erickson, Darrell; Mrs. Owen Maue, Arthur; Mrs. Harwood Stellwagen, Robert. Mrs. Erickson was chairman.

Guests were the Tinley Hustlers 4H club and leaders, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Siemson; the Alpine Girls 4H club and leader, Mrs. Harwood Stellwagen; the families of 4H members and leaders former leaders, and other friends of 4H.

The idea of having 4H clubs get together after the fair in a friendly event in which all competition was forgotten originated with the Tinley Hustlers, who entertained at the first such an event at the William Knieriem farm in Frankfort, last year. Their picnic was such a success that the Orland Boys planned a return picnic for next year is being heard.

YMCA Antique Show at Harvey To Open Oct. 3

It is time again for the annual YMCA antique show, at Harvey. Mrs. A. R. Downing, general chairman, reports the ground work finished, with committees busy at work, and says everything will be in readiness when the doors open for the 3-day event Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 3, 4 and 5.

As usual it will be held in the Memorial YMCA, 155th and Center ave., Harvey. There is a small admission charge, the proceeds benefitting the "Y".

There will be dealers present this year, who have been in the Harvey show since the first one in 1952, plus several new ones. Several new booths have been created to provide for newcomers to the show.

Special attractions are added each year to add variety to the show. A new feature this year will be an old time Music Hall. This event will be housed in the Leo Sample room, and will feature a dancing exhibition of the Minuette, a Viennese waltz, and other early dances, performed under the direction of Miss Ruth Kingue.

Collectors will find the antique show a profitable place. Among the patrons of past shows are folks who collect milk glass, early pattern glass, mechanical banks, bisque figurines, hand painted plates, old jewelry, Satin glass, Royal Worcester, old furniture, pitchers, miniatures, cups and saucers and countless other items.

And also there will be the familiar "country store", where old time articles will be for sale including an abundance of the ever popular penny candy.

Bremen, Sandburg Divide Football Bill

Braves Varsity Takes Invading Eagles 14-0; Sophomores Lose 13-6

Bremen and Sandburg high school football teams, meeting in the first conference tilts of the season for these two members of the Southwest Suburban circuit, divided a double bill last week-end on the Braves' field.

The Bremen varsity won 14 to 0. The Sandburg sophs won 13 to 6. This was the second game won by the Eagles in as many starts this season.

The Braves scored late in the second period and again in the fourth in the varsity contest and were able to hold the Eagles away from pay-dirt.

Both teams showed strong defenses. A poor punt set up the Braves' chance for their first score. Late in the first half Bremen had pushed to the Sandburg one-foot line. The Braves held there by a terrific defense. Taking over at that point the Eagles dropped a kicker back of the goal line for a punt on the first play. The kick was short and the Braves had little distance to traverse.

Two plays, the second one a five yard spring by Julius Bond gave Bremen a touchdown. Paul Meents booted the extra point.

Sandburg's best thrust came a few minutes later as the clock was running out for the first half. In four tries, Phil Yurtis, Eagle quarterback, and Eric Johanson, a halfback, made 26 yards which had them down in Bremen territory but not far enough to count.

The third quarter was fairly even but in the last period the Braves made another march with Bon Yoniles going over for a touchdown from the four. Meents kicked the extra point.

In the sophomore contest Jerry Sawyer scored the first touchdown for Sandburg with a sprint from the six-yard mark as a climax to a 60-yard drive that began with the kickoff. Jerry McBride kicked the extra point.

Sandburg scored again in the fourth period but McBride's boot for the extra point was blocked. Bremen also scored in the last quarter in a plunge from the two-yard line to make the final score, Sandburg 13, Bremen 6.

The Sandburg sophomores look pretty fair and observers expect them to do well in the conference.

The Sandburgs will play two football games at Rich this Saturday, Sept. 28 and also engage in a cross-country run.

L-W Prepares For Annual Homecoming

The dance, sponsored by the Student Council will feature the crowning of the homecoming queen. Tickets may be purchased from any Student Council member. Music will be provided by a Joliet orchestra. 50-Lap Feature To Close Midget Season at Joliet

A 50-lap season championship feature race brings to a close the 1957 midget auto racing season Saturday night in Joliet Memorial Stadium.

There will be a full racing program, starting with time trials at 7:30 p.m. and the first of seven races at 8:30 p.m. In the event of rain the program will be run Sunday night at the same time. The races were rained out last week-end.

Willie Wildhaber of Lexington, Ill., and Bob Tattersall of Streator are the odds-on favorites to win the 50-lap windup Saturday. Each has won one long distance grind this season.

Willie Seeks 3rd Win
"Wild" Willie took the 50-lap title last season with two, compared to one for Tattersall. However, Tattersall won the track championship in 1956 and has more feature victories than any other driver this year.

Tattersall has won eight main event, compared to three each for runners-up Wildhaber and George Sellery of Chicago.

Among the biggest threats to the leaders Saturday will be Willie Wilson of Bensenville, Mike King of Evanston, Johnny Riva of Morton Grove, Ken Rubright of Lyndon, Ray Elliott and Newt White of Lockport and Jolietans Bernie Wilhelm, Sam Robinson and Bill Barnes.

Four heat races, a handicap and 15 lap semi-feature complete the program.

Mustangs Take Knights 19 to 6 And Sophs 14-2

Lincoln-Way varsity football team lost its opening Southwest Suburban Conference game to Evergreen Park, Friday afternoon by a score of 19 to 6.

Lincoln-Way had won its first game of the season against LeMont, the week previous, 18 to 0 but the Mustangs scored too often and too much.

Statistics show the Knights racked up four first downs to the Mustangs six. Lincoln-Way gained 89 yards by rushing as compared to 225 for Evergreen, and 83 from passing as compared to 15 for E. P. Lincoln-Way completed five out of 12 passes, E. P., two out of six. Lincoln-Way intercepted two of the Mustangs' passes while the latter glommed three of the Knights' aerial shots, the first one for a touchdown in the first quarter. Bob Muersch snagged a Lincoln pass on the six yard line and went boundin over.

The Evergreens failed to add the extra point after this first score but took care of that detail in the second quarter when Dale Almquist plunged over from the two for a T.D.

The Mustangs added 12 more points in the third quarter, one on a pass interception by Almquist who then ran 35 yards for a touchdown and their other came on a 11-yard carry by Tom Williams.
Ron Fredin scored for Lincoln-Way, carrying the ball over from the four in the final quarter.
Lincoln-Way will face its second conference foe in Bremen this Friday at the Bremen field. The sophomore teams will battle at Bremen Saturday morning. The Lincoln-Way sophomores lost to Evergreen Park last Saturday morning, 14 to 2.

Add Touch Of West To Mokena Scene With Cutting Horse Show

Something new has been added to the area scene. The Northern Illinois Cutting Horse Association is to stage its first fall contest Saturday night, Sept. 28, at the Lone Pine ranch, on 187th, half a mile west of U. S. 45.

Persons attending from Mokena can follow 191st street to the first road west of the Rock Island crossing and then turn north.

Those in charge of the affair plan to make it an annual event.

In this region of bridle paths, English saddles, posting, and feeder cattle held in barnlots and small pastures, there are probably few persons who know what a cutting horse is, and probably fewer yet who have seen one in action.

But where one works cattle with mounted hands, a good cutting horse is worth several men. Like a polo pony, a cutting horse must be capable of a fast start, bursts of high speed, plenty of stamina, plenty savvy and the control and dexterity of a master of the ballet.

A Special Trade

The cutting horse is trained for a special trade and when he learns it, like any accomplished and skilled workman, is something to watch. You want a particular calf or a grown critter out of a herd. You start in for it and when the horse finds out which one you want he takes over. All you have to do is sit it out but you do have to know how to sit because there are times when the movement is swift, the turns sharp and unexpected.

It has been said many times a good cutting horse can turn on a dime and leave seven or eight cents change.

The contest at the Lone Pine is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. Saturday night. There will be open classes at least one for novices. Under the rules a horse must not only cut out a calf but keep him out of the herd for 2½ minutes.

Corral Well Lighted

The Lone Pine is the former Martin Smith farm and is now owned by Don Gerdel. Those in charge announced that 30 entries have been received to date.

The Northern Illinois Cutting Horse association is headed by Owen Storm as president and Gerdel as vice president. Both are of Mokena. There are a number of local members.

The contest will be staged in a well lighted corral and some 10 prizes will be awarded. There is to be some trick riding too and Bob Timmler, of Wheaton, will act as master of ceremonies.

Sandburg Harriers Win Triangular Meet Beat Reavis and L-W

A triangular cross-country meet at Reavis high in Oak Lawn last week-end was won by Sandburg's harriers. The host school was second and Lincoln-Way placed third.

In this sport, like golf, low score is best. Sandburg finished with 26 points, Reavis 34 and Lincoln-Way 97.

Individual honors for the victors went to Reed Williams, a junior and two-year letterman, who ran the mile and seventenths course in nine minutes. Joe Pierce, also a junior and two-year letterman, was second with a time of 9:34. Bob Hall placed fourth, Bill Pfeiffer, ninth and Mike Fundator, 10th.

And clothes stay clean and smell clean when they're dried in an electric dryer. No fumes can ever mix with garments. Electric heat is clean, dry, radiant heat—just like the sun.

It takes only 25 to 30 minutes to dry a full load of cottons electrically. This means your dryer will easily keep up with your automatic washer.

All electric dryers are fully automatic. No complicated igniting devices to get out of order.

And, as your electric appliance dealer will tell you, electric dryers cost less than any other type.

Business and Finance

MAURICE P. ANGLAND

International developments have certainly had an influence on stock market action of late.

The financial troubles of France have been getting worse. Further devaluation of the franc has been expected for some time. A step in this direction was taken by France giving its monetary unit a lower value on the world market than that inside France itself. This is an attempt to slow down imports and halt a steady inflation in that country. Few bankers believe this will be effective.

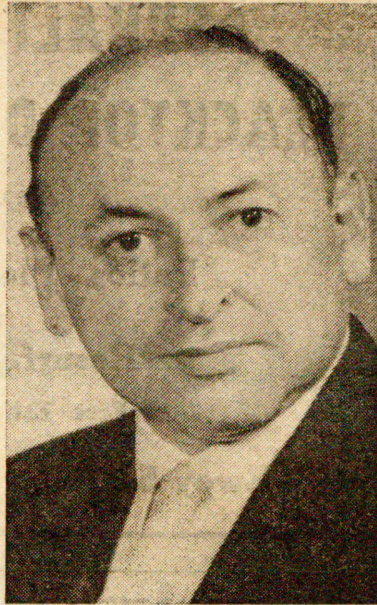

Some informed sources believe that the many splinter parties governing France do not make possible a strong government and that the only possible eventuality is something approaching an economic dictatorship. Presently a French government that would dare to raise and collect taxes to balance the budget and enforce government economics, would be out of office and power promptly.

English Money Tight

Securities markets were very surprised by the Bank of England raising its rediscount rate to 7 percent. This rediscount rate paid by banks when they borrow from the central bank and loans on average commercial loans will naturally carry an interest rate greater than 7 percent. This step was taken to avoid necessity of devaluation of the pound sterling.

The increase of interest rates is expected to force a slow down in commercial borrowing and to cut imports. It will make money "tight" with business firms anxious to reduce inventories and make certain that their factory production has a ready market. This, of course, will likely bring about some unemployment. England has very strong unions and, in spite of predictions of exactly what has happened, the unions generally refused to keep their wage demands in line with their production increases per man hour.

The Bank of England felt it must take this drastic step to preserve its gold and dollar reserves which were being badly depleted due to England's inability to export as much as it imports and foreign debtors did not care to leave their credits for such sales to England, in English banks. They demanded gold or payment in other currencies—mainly dollars.

Germany in Good Shape

England's financial condition has been steadily improving, but France's position frightened some and caused this sudden worsening. Oddly enough, the excellent financial position of Germany increased the pressure as it has been rumored for some time that the German is under-valued among world currencies and would be re-valued upward. Naturally, those having balances in banks of France and England liked the chance of an increased value as against a decreased value. The 7 per cent will no doubt bring in considerable funds to the English banking system.

From a world commerce point of view, England's position is much more important than that of France. Undoubtedly steps will be taken immediately to aid the situation in England.

FUTURE TEACHERS

The Future Teachers of America met Sept. 12 with president Helen Sheridan presiding. The year's program was discussed and two of the major events will be American Education Week at Lincoln-Way High School and the convention at Northbrook.

BAND ACTIVITIES

During the summer when everyone else was out enjoying themselves the band was having regular rehearsals and gave two outdoor concerts. Due to their conscientious efforts Director Robert Taylor arranged a trip to St. Louis. So on Aug. 30 at 7 a. m. 30 band members and chaperones sleepily boarded the school bus and embarked with Mr. Kruzich at the helm. A short stop was made at Bloomington to pick up Larry Pilferm the band president. Going on, the group stopped in Springfield for lunch. After eating, they took a short look at Lincoln's home and tomb and then proceeded on to St. Louis. Arriving at the hotel about 5 p.m. the members had an hour and a half to get unpacked and eat before they were off again—this time for the St. Louis Municipal opera. Here they were conducted on a backstage tour of the only "air-conditioned" outdoor theatre in the world. Later, they saw the "Pajama Game."

Saturday at 8 a. m. Mr. Taylor awakened all sleepyheads and at 10 a. m. the bus left for the St. Louis Zoo where the group spent the remainder of the morning. When 2 p. m. rolled around everyone boarded the bus for the long trip home. It was a quiet ride since everyone was tired from the exciting two days at St. Louis, but the excitement wasn't over yet, because the last fifty miles was a race against Roger Swart's appendix. Arriving at the hospital safely, everyone agreed with Mr. Taylor that the band shouldn't take another trip without being accompanied by a doctor and two registered nurses.

All band officers were elected before the close of school last year but during the summer the president, Larry Phifer, moved away. Everett Long, the vice president was unanimously chosen president. Dave McGuire treasurer, was elected vice president and Judy Christenianson was named treasurer.

Friday, Sept. 20, the first place trophy won by the band in last year's state music contest was presented to the school by Jim Stauffenberg. Jim was vice president of the band last year.

At this time the band is carrying on a candy bar sale to raise money to buy new uniforms for the twenty new freshmen who have come into the band this year. The sale started Sept. 19 and will last thru Oct. 7.

SOPHOMORE CHORUS

The newly formed Sixth Period Chorus has begun its first year with the election of officers. They are president, Judy Marcec; vice president, Margie Ardaugh; business, Anne Cummings; librarians, Kathy Berlin and Jean Lientz, and reporter, Carole Egress.

The girls, under the direction of Mr. Tom Olson, hope to be a performing group this year and are practicing several songs.

Cub Scouts of Pack 41 surpassed all expectations, when they put on the theme for the round table of the Rainbow council at the Central Presbyterian church in Joliet last Wednesday night. The theme was their interpretation of "Injun Summer" by John T. McCutcheon. Bobby Newsome gave the introduction; George Pokorny was the old man telling a weird tale of Indian summer, to a little boy who was portrayed by Richard Pokorny. Kenny Madsen, Fred Cortright, Gerald Konkel, Steve Wright, Randy Konkel, and Bobby Newsome were the dancing Indian ghosts. These boys made their own costumes. The scenery was made by Vern Newsome, Fred Cortright, and Dick Pokorny. Pack 41 received many compliments for the impressive portrayal of the theme. To reward the Cub Scouts there will be a hay rack ride Saturday night, Sept. 28 at 7 o'clock starting at the Lincolnwood Hills park, for Cub Scouts and their families only.

CLINTON DAVIDSON

The present tax situation reminds me of an old vaudeville skit in which Sam rushes up to Joe and says: "Give me two tens for a five, quick." Joe gives him the $20 and get the $5 before he realizes that he has been gypped.

That is not so different from Uncle Sam saying to the states: "Give me most of the taxes paid by your citizens, both individuals and corporations, and I will give you a small part of it back, in school aid and other Federal contributions—MAYBE."

Take just one state, North Carolina, for example. In fiscal 1956 citizens of that state paid $1,662,147,000 in Federal taxes. But, when North Carolina said, "Give us back, in school construction aid, $811,541,000, which is less than 1 percent of what you took", Congress said, "No."

States governments go, hat in hand, to Washington, asking for handouts in order to meet normal obligations to their people.

Taxes Rule
The Federal government thru the exercise of almost unlimited tax powers, has become the powerful central authority against which men like Thomas Jefferson warned. State authority has declined by the same ratio as Federal authority has increased.

The need for a strong central government in international and strictly national affairs is not questioned, but a big increase has come mostly in domestic affairs originally reserved to the states.

This shift in power and responsibility from the states to Washington has come not so much by reason of new laws and court decisions as thru Federal taxing and spending programs. In 25 years Federal spending for purely domestic purposes has more than quadrupled.

Federal taxes are taking such a huge proportion of taxable income in the states that many states must rely on Federal appropriations to finance ordinary state programs, such as roads, schools, and other public works.

Little for States
Some congressmen boast about the amount of Federal money appropriated to their state or district. They seldom mention how much the Internal Revenue Service takes out of their state or district.

The sad fact is that when the Internal Revenue Service tax collector has done his job in a state, there are insufficient revenue sources left for the state government. Federal income tax rates, for example, range up to 87% on one's total income.

In some states necessary functions, like school construction, become too heavy a burden because Federal taxes take the lion's share of tax revenue. The recently defeated School Aid Bill is an example of the result of such policies.

We are not attempting to discuss the merits or demerits of the School Aid Bill. We are merely pointing out that if the states had exercised some control over the amount the Federal government takes away from them thru taxing their residents, the question of Federal aid would never have arisen.

Many state legislatures already have voted in favor of a Constitutional amendment which would place a ceiling on the portion of an individual's taxes that can be taken by Federal taxes. An organization called the Campaign for the 48 States is backing that movement.

This double-circle insigne of TEXAS EASTERN Transmission Corporation is going to become a familiar sight around here

Texas Eastern is going to become a permanent citizen of your county . . . a new neighbor, anxious to be a good new neighbor, working with you for the long-range good of the community.

Already, you may have seen crews of Texas Eastern engineers in your area. They're preparing the way for the construction of a new 14-inch diameter petroleum pipeline extending 230 miles from Texas Eastern's Little Big Inch line near Seymour, Indiana, to Chicago. (Route of the Seymour-Chicago Lateral is shown on the map adjoining.)

This new line—part of a 1700-mile system—will bring refined oil products, including liquefied butane and propane, to interior markets from the world's largest refining capacity . . . the oil refineries of the Gulf Coast, East Texas, North Louisiana, South Arkansas and Midcontinent areas.

Actual construction on the line will start almost immediately. Independent contractors—under the direction of Texas Eastern people—will do the work. The contractors will purchase quantities of their supplies through local merchants. Construction workers—many of them hired locally—will be patronizing merchants along the line too.

When construction work is completed the pipeline will be turned over to permanent Texas Eastern crews to maintain and operate. As new, permanent residents of your area, these Texas Eastern people will pay local taxes, buy local supplies and take their part as regular citizens of the community.

Elsah, One of the River Towns, Interesting Link to Illinois' Past

By JOHN W. ALLEN
Southern Illinois University

You go to Elsah because you want to go there. No billboards or neon signs point the way. Nor is the village cluttered with either when you arrive.

It is not difficult to reach. A well-kept loop of blacktop leading east from Illinois Highway 100 about five miles north of Alton, passes through Elsah and rejoins the state highway about five miles east of Grafton. At the Grafton end of the loop, an inconspicuous sign with an arrow and modest lettering shows the way to one of the most distinctive villages in the state.

For more than 100 years this quaint town has nestled in the narrow mile-long ravine that cuts into the Piasah bluff facing the nearby Mississippi.

Before it became Elsah it was Jersey Landing, a busy river port that served the prosperous countryside. It was a point where steamboats stopped for fuel. In fact, the first men settling there were woodcutters.

It remained Jersey Landing until the early 1850's when a Scotsman named James Semple acquired land in the vicinity and platted a town in about the only ravine large enough to shelter one. Its founder would have named the village Ailsah for his early home in Scotland but settled for Elsa, which became Elsah when a post office was established.

Man of Many Parts

Semple was a strange man. By turns he was U. S. charge d'affaires at Bogota in Colombia, and author of an unpublished history of South America and one of Mexico. He served as U.S. senator from Illinois, being appointed by Governor Ford. He also was the maker of what may well be termed the first automobile in Illinois, a steam-powered vehicle. He also left a creditable military record, attaining the rank of brigadier-general.

When he had platted the village, Semple offered lots for sale at reasonable prices. Even better than that, he offered to give them away and did so. In order to get a free lot the recipient was required to build a house of native stone on it. Many a person accepted his offer. This explains the presence of most of the quaint old stone buildings one finds there today.

The practice of building with stone also may explain the presence of picturesque retaining walls with their resulting terraces for flowers and vegetables.

Whether of wood, brick or stone, the style of buildings remained plain and functional. One sees little of "gewgaws or gingerbread" on Elsah's buildings. Whatever the material employed, those who came to make homes in the new village built well.

Old, But Still in Use

Many of their homes built a hundred years ago are still standing and in use. Time naturally has taken its toll, particularly of the wooden structures. It has also brought the remaining ones to appear to belong where they are. Along the 15-foot wide streets of the village—there are two near the river—the houses snuggle closely against the ravine walls.

Along the main street a short way up from the stone schoolhouse and beside a brook, one comes to a small memorial park where he finds a large, shapeless granite block. On the smooth side of the block are the names of 22 men who went from Elsah Township to serve in World War One.

A free-flowing spring of good water comes into the brook from beneath the bluff back of this park. It is good water but visitors should be warned against drinking from this spring. Those who do, it is said, will always return to the quaint village.

There are two well-kept and active churches, one a Methodist and the other a Church of Christ Scientist. Their friendly relationship and mutual helpfulness is cheering. No antagonism is sensed and if there is an element of rivalry it is solely one coming from an effort to best serve.

Church on Distillery Site

By strange coincidence, the very attractive and well-kept Church of Christ, Scientist, and its reading room occupy the site where one of Elsah's distilleries was located. Though Elsah's once had taverns, there are none there now and no one appears to even mildly regret their absence.

Many buildings in the village have interesting stories. One of these stands on the river bank and is known as River View House. The older portion of this building, erected in 1848, is of logs. Today it still is heated by the original stone fireplace, and the walls are covered with water colors. Its small, paned front windows looks out across the river.

Mrs. E. L. Rhoads, who lives here, began to log the passing river craft some 16 years ago. Night or day, each commercial craft passing this point sounds its greeting and plays its spotlight on the doorway to be greeted and recorded.

Many of the interesting structures of earlier times are gone. No longer there are the large flouring mills that stood beside the Mississippi and rolled their barrels of flour from the mills to the decks of the steamers. Likewise the large riverside distillery. There are no longer any cattlepens and no livestock is held for river shipment. The 100-room hotel, with its fine dancing pavilion that once stood atop the bluff and commanded a wonderful river view, is gone. Likewise the tramway that led up the steep hillside from the valley.

River steamers no longer stop to load and unload freight while their hands play or passengers go to dance at the pavilion on the hilltop. One now often sees some artist or a group of them gathered in some shady nook, quietly sketching interesting objects or scenes.

A visit to Elsah will turn the wheels of time backward and make one want to return even if he does not drink from the magic spring.

Open New TB Clinic Building For Suburbs

A new fortress has been raised to battle tuberculosis in suburban Cook county.

Dedication ceremonies for a modern medical clinic and survey building of the Suburban Cook County Tuberculosis Sanitarium District were held Sunday, Sept. 15.

More than a half million Cook County suburbanites will be served by the new two-story clinic at 7556 W. Jackson Blvd., Forest Park.

The structure will house X-ray films and other medical records covering a 12-year history of TB detection and treatment in the county. The building replaces the clinic at 7401 W. Madison st.

Center of Activities

All public health activities of the official tuberculosis control group will be centralized here. These activities begin with the free chest X-ray mobile unit program and include follow-up of all suspected cases, outpatient care, and post-sanitarium care of patients after discharge from the TB hospital-sanitarium, at 55th and County Line rd., Hinsdale.

Completely air-conditioned, the fireproof building is of reinforced concrete construction with aluminum paneling and thermopant windows.

About 1,000 guests joined the SCCTSD board in the traditional cornerstone sealing ceremonies at 2 p.m.

"We expect to take more than 2,500 screening and diagnostic X-rays in the clinic per month," said Dr. Edward A. Piszczek, executive director. "There are 350,000 large films and over one million screening films on file here now."

Have Complete Records

"Approximately 30,000 clinic visits per year will be made by suburban residents for outpatient care and observation."

"Our TB registry includes the names of everyone in the county who has had positive findings thru one test or another since 1945. There are 5,128 known tuberculosis cases in the county, including 1,732 active cases, all on record at the clinic."

The half-million-dollar clinic and survey building is the second new construction by the district since the beginning of its operation on Oct. 1, 1949. The hospital-sanitarium at 55th and County Line Road, Hinsdale, was opened on Feb. 14, 1955.

Read 11 Timothy 1:1-7

I thank God whom I serve with a clear conscience, as did my fathers. (11 Timothy 1:3 RSV.)

One's conscience needs to be educated and kept sensitive. The best way to do these things is to read the Bible. Then the conscience will be filled with the workings of God as revealed in the prophets, psalmists, apostles and above, in Christ. Martin Luther had so familiarized himself with the Bible that he could say, "My conscience is captive to the Word of God."

A good man is he whose conscience is so firmly rooted in God that when he is doing what he pleases to do he is a true servant of God.

Prayer should follow our Bible reading. As we wake up in the morning, we can offer to God a prayer of thanksgiving and devotion. The time before we go to bed at night can be spent in Bible study and prayer so that we may make the conscience more sensitive to the divine love and will of God.

PRAYER

O God, Thou speakest to our minds and hearts through the pages of the Bible. We thank Thee this day with a clear conscience. In the Savior's name we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

The Word of God is enshrined in the conscience of the Christian.

Take Notice: In addition to the foregoing amount, the cost on each tract or parcel of land is 32c and on each city or town lot or block 22c at this date. A statutory fee of 3c per tract or lot for compiling the delinquent list for the County Court plus a statutory fee of 3c per tract or lot for compiling delinquent list for the printer is added. At the time of sale an additional statutory fee of 10c for each tract and 3c for each lot sold for taxes is added.

All delinquent taxes for the levy year 1956 draw interest at the rate of 1% per month or fractional part thereof for delinquency, the first installment being delinquent on the first day of June 1957, and the second installment being delinquent on the first day of September 1957. I, Floyd H. Krapf, County Treasurer and ex-officio County Collector of Will County in the State of Illinois, give notice that I will apply to the County Court of said Will County at the October Term thereof, to be holden at the Court House in the City of Joliet in said County on the first Monday in October A. D. 1957, same being the seventh day of said month, for judgment against the said Lands, Town and City Lots and Blocks described in the foregoing lists for the general and special taxes, interest and costs severally due thereon, and for judgment fixing the amount of tax paid under protest and that I will then and there apply for an order to sell all Lands, Town and City Lots and Blocks for the satisfaction of said general and special taxes, interest and costs, and I also give notice that on the second Monday in October A.D. 1957, the same being the fourteenth day of said month, all Lands, Town and City Lots and Blocks, on which an order shall be made, will be exposed at Public Sale at the Court House aforesaid in said County and State for the amount of general and special taxes, interest and costs due thereon.

Said Tax Sale will commence at the hour of 9 o'clock a.m. on said Monday, the fourteenth of October A.D. 1957, and will continue from day to day until all the Lands, Town and City Lots and Blocks upon which the general and special taxes, interest and costs remain due and unpaid at that time are sold.

Telephone Company Extends Base Rate Area in Tinley Park

According to a public notice in this week's issue of the Tinley Park Times, the Illinois Bell Telephone Company has filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission a proposed change in its telephone local exchange which involves an extension of the base rate area.

Albert J. LaMere, area manager of Bell Telephone explains this will only affect telephone subscribers in the rural area of Tinley Park.

Those subscribers in the area involved will now have one or two party lines instead of the present eight party and the mileage charge now imposed will be eliminated. The new extension of base rate area will involve about 300 customers, said LaMere.

The increase in population of the surrounding rural area makes this improved service possible by the company.

Pictorial Review Of Local News Events

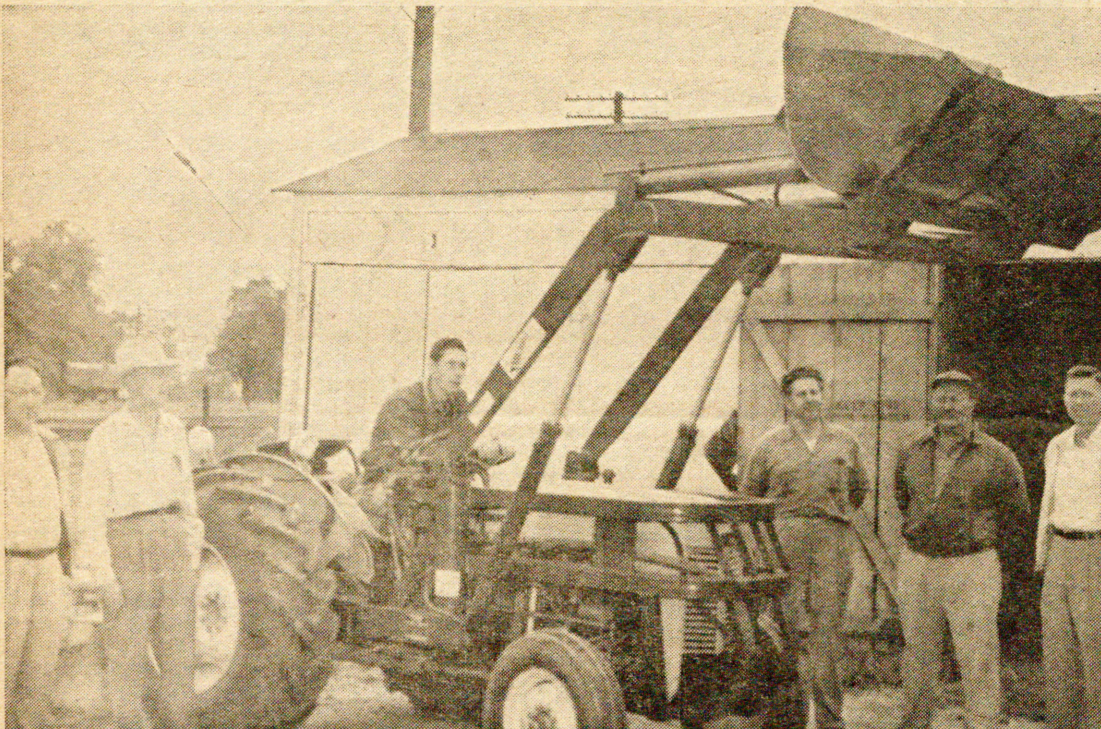

NAZARENE YOUTH CLUB—newly organized at the Tinley Park Nazarene church is open to all youngsters of that community, regardless of church affiliation. According to those in charge the club combines Christian fellowship and a good deal of fun thru a recreation program. It meets twice a month at the church.

THERE'S SOMETHING ABOUT A PICNIC—that the song writers also could call grand, especially when one is young and full of vim and vigor as are these Alpine 4-H club members, drawn from Orland Park, Mokena and Tinley Park areas. The club had a picnic last Sunday on the Milton Bettenhausen farm at Alpine and some 90 persons attended, including the Alpine Girls 4-H club. Started last year by the Tinley Hustlers it appears as if the fall picnic idea will become an annual fixture.

FOR BETTER STREETS—Tinley Park has had recent delivery on some machinery that will help materially in street maintenance. The rig shown here carries a blade for grading, can operate a mower and the high-life shown in operation is useful in many ways. At the controls is Bernard Ackerman, recently hired by the village as a full-time maintenance man.

Others in the picture (l to r) are, Frank Schneider, building inspector; Joseph McCarthy, village trustee; Mike Haber, Robert Powers, water superintendent and Allen Verhage, village trustee, chairman of the water committee. The water department also will make use of the equipment.

POLICE AID SCHOOL BAND—Pete Seeley, a member of the Tinley Park police department acted for Chief Harold C. Moore in presenting a check for $100 to Lynden DeYoung, director of the Tinley Park public school band, as a contribution to aid in purchasing needed supplies for the organization. The money was a part of the proceeds of the annual police department dance.

NEW FANS FOR AN OLD PRO—Guy Bush, who for many years was one of the Chicago Cubs top flight pitchers, turned in another excellent performance last Saturday night at the dinner given Tinley Park Little League and Pony League members at Saenger hall. The event also was attended by dads, uncles and friends of the youngsters, some of whom may someday wear a major league uniform. Guy showed some films and also answered a flock of questions. When this picture was taken he was surrounded by a group of new-made fans, all soliciting autographs. It was an enjoyable evening for the kids and Mr. Bush.

TRICKY BRIDGE—so Don Anderson, a member of the New Lenox Boy Scout troop, will attest, but after a shaky start he found that it works well too. The bridge, constructed of poles and rope, was put up at the recent Scout "wing ding" held in Mokena Community park at which the Scouts from Mokena and New Lenox pitted their skills in various Scouting practices and endeavors. One might not want to cross, say Niagara Falls, on such a contraption as the bridge shown here but if it were the only thing between you and the falls it would be handy indeed.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Marti and daughter Barbara returned Wednesday from a three weeks motor trip to California, covering 5600 miles. They spent a pleasant week with the former Ruby Oswald, and husband Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Pamler in Los Angeles. Enroute they visited many places of interest in Colorado and other western states.

The WSCS of the Methodist church met Sept. 12 in the church with Mrs. Harold Cooper as hostess. Mrs. John Balaz led the devotions and Mrs. Roy Erdman presented the program. Mrs. James Murphy, Mrs. Elias Brown and Mrs. Erdman attended the society's district conference at Sandwich last Wednesday.

Louis Dudak of San Francisco, Calif., is a guest today in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shevlin. He is here to attend a Chicago meeting of chemist. He will go to Detroit, Mich., Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wilder returned last Thursday from a motor trip to Canada where they enjoyed fishing. They report having had good luck in fishing bringing back a regulation amount of northerners. Since returning home Mr. Wilder is on the sick list.

Mrs. Charles Cervenka, 193rd st., would like to induce house wives of Mokena to join the Joliet YMCA House Wife program. The group meets every Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 10 to 12 noon. Included in the course are also swimming and gymnasium. Any housewife interested in this program may call Mrs. Cervenda at Mokena 3671 and she will be glad to give further particulars.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hines, McGovney st., returned Thursday night from a two weeks motor trip. Accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rush of Black River Falls, Wis. They toured the Black Hills, the Badlands, visited the gold mine near Lead, S. Dak., the petrified forest, near Deadwood and Mt. Rushmore. They took many pictures of the places of interest.

At the meeting of the Women's guild of St. John's church last Thursday, new officers elected were, Mrs. Herman Lorenz, president; Mrs. Clarence Immekus, treasurer and Mrs. K. J. DeCamp, financial secretary. Committee chairman appointed were, Mrs. Edwin Yunker, and Mrs. Owen Maue, beef dinner in October, Mrs. Edna Young, dining room. The Guild's cancer dressing group will meet Oct. 15 instead of their regular date of Oct. 8 which is the date of the regional Guild meeting to be held at Hammond, Ind., which many members plan to attend. The group will sponsor a "Luncheon Is Served" luncheon at 1 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Immekus are participating in a planned tour of Florida.

Miss Lydia Baudry returned Friday evening from a conducted tour of California. She joined the group in Chicago going by train. They visited the Grand Canyon and Yosemite park. She was able to spend several days with her friend, Mrs. Adelaide Bishop in San Diego and returned by plane.

The Cub Scouts pack meeting will be held this evening at 7:30 in the public school gym. Cub Master George Gorman requests all Cub Scouts to attend.

George Wannemacher entered Silver Cross hospital Tuesday where he will undergo surgery in a few days. His sister, Mrs. Louise Hentsch who is also a surgical patient in the same hospital is improving nicely and expects to be home soon.

Mrs. Marvin Kohl opened her home last Thursday evening to the members of the Frankfort-Mokena Home bureau. There were 11 members present. The home adviser, Mrs. Betty Shinn presented the lesson on "The Heart of the Home." Miss Rosie Brar, who is an exchange farm youth from Lucknow, India was presented and told about her country, its mode of living and working on their farms and schooling. It was very interesting.

Of interest to Mokena friends is the announcement of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cooper of New Lenox. She was born Sept. 21 in Silver Cross hospital.

TINLEY GROUP—

The meeting was called by Senator Hayes Robertson. Tinley was represented at the meeting by Harry C. Trevarthen, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and the Rev. Dallas Mucci, pastor of the Nazarene church.

Industry has endorsed the establishment of a college in this area and business and civic groups have expressed a desire to work towards this goal to help maintain and improve the standards already set and which it is felt will be threatened by an anticipated large influx of people to the area, resulting from the large growth in industry caused by the new waterway developments.

The persuasive arguments of the Association to induce the trustees of the University of Illinois to agree to move the branch of the University which has been at Navy Pier since 1947 to a large campus in south Cook County, include the following: Expected increase in population, desirable locations at comparatively low acreage of prices; student potential. Other reasons were given in an Interim report sent by the Association to the board of trustees recently on the proposal for a south Cook County extension to the University of Illinois.

First Junior College

The Association is expressing how the people of this area have shown ability to arise to a need and stubbornly pursue educational advantages, direct attention to the fact that the first junior college in American was established at Joliet and now has an enrollment of 650 students. Thornton Junior College was established 30 years ago and has 515 students enrolled. Bloom township has just organized a junior college. Several large modern high schools have recently been built and others are in the planning stages.

The trustees of the University of Illinois have been studying the location of the proposed branch for some time. They have discarded all Chicago sites proposed.

Recent meetings sponsored by the Association have been attended by educators, businessmen, editors and industrialists. Future meetings on the Association calendar include representatives of the clergy, Associations Commerce and organizational leaders.

In adding its voice to assent to locating the proposed branch of the University of Illinois in the southwest section of Cook County, Tinley Park probably will unite with the Regional Association formed for this purpose.

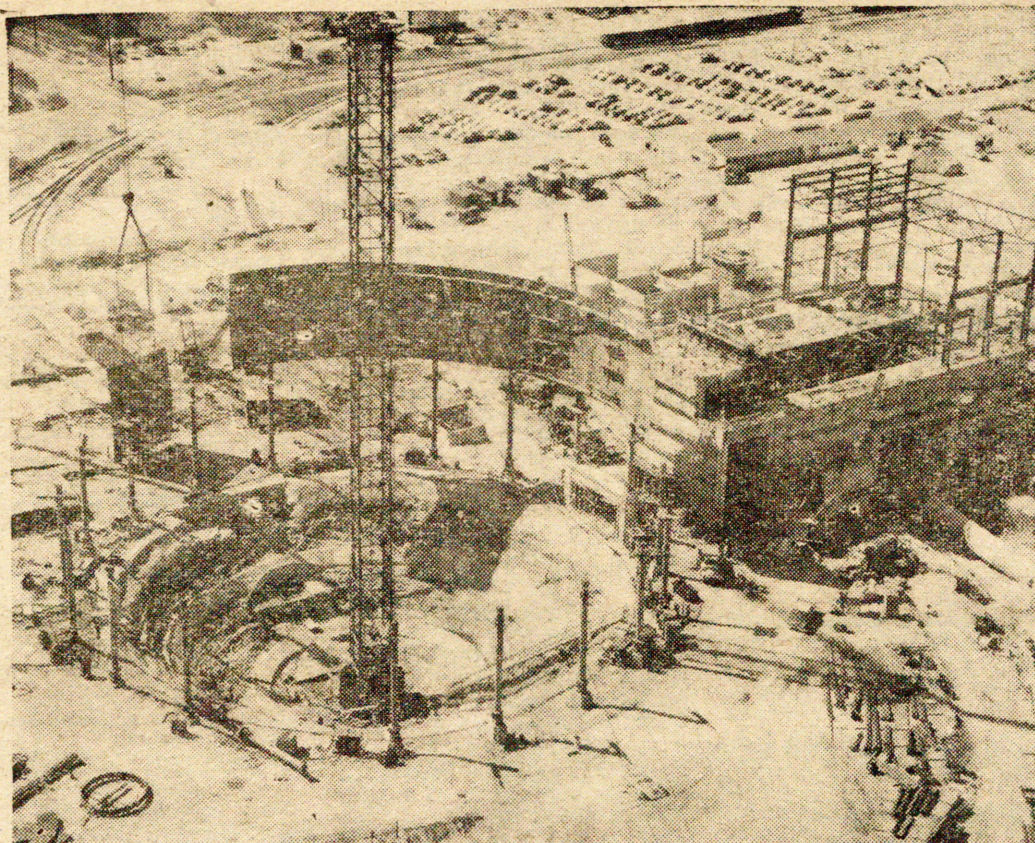

Washington Snapshots

Some members of Congress say the clean-up movement in organized labor shows signs of becoming a flop.

Defiance of the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee is already seen in actions within the teamsters union. It is similarly expected in the bakery workers union. An immediate result may be to increase pressure on the Senate Rackets Committee, headed by Sen. McClellan (D. Ark.) to broaden the scope of its inquiry to all parts of the country.

Exposure of labor union corruption and hoodlumism is regarded by some Congressmen as the best method of bringing about a clean-up in the near future. More and more legislators voice the opinion that legislation will be necessary to halt union corruption.

Legislation has been pending in Congress to this end. It includes: (1) Abolition of compulsory unionism; (2) Reversing court decisions permitting the federal government to preempt rights of states; (3) Removing union antitrust law exemption.

FOR PEACEFUL ATOMS—construction is progressing rapidly on Commonwealth Edison company's 180,000-kilowatt Dresden nuclear power station on the Illinois waterway 50 miles southwest of Chicago.

In the foreground workmen are installing sections of the 190-foot steel sphere which will house the plant's boiling water reactor. At the right is the turbine generator building.

The station, which is scheduled for completion in 1960, is being built by General Electric co. for a contract price of $45,000,000.

Dresden will have the country's largest atomic power reactor. Major construction work on the project started last June.

FARM NEWS

For Cook County by W.F. Whiteside

assistant farm adviser

The soybean variety trial on the Fred Niemeyer farm, Cicero avenue and Flossmoor road, is showing considerable difference in maturity dates between varieties. On the Chippewa variety, the leaves have turned yellow and fallen. Other varieties are still green. All varieties are standing well.

If you would like to see five soybean varieties standing side by side, stop and see this demonstration at Fred Niemeyer's.

If you have boxelder trees in your community, you may find some unwelcome guests in your home one of these cool fall mornings. A half pint of 20% lindane concentrate in 2½ gallons of water, is a spray that will control boxelder bugs. Use only outside the house. You can spray the foundation and sides of the house and a three foot strip of ground. Inside the house use a vacuum cleaner or pyrethrin household spray.

The county 4H committee has graded records submitted by 4H members and named county project honor and outstanding members. Many of these records will be considered for State honors.

All 4H members will be recognized for their accomplishments at the Annual Achievement program on Nov. 5, 7:00 pm. at the Homewood village hall.

Although this time of the year is called "4H Finish up," it is also time to start new projects and continue old ones. For projects continued from one year to the next, a new record should be started Sept. 1.

Minhafer oats have been approved as a recommended variety for Illinois in 1958. Seed will not be available from Illinois certified seed producers until 1959. Seed for this year's crop will have to be obtained from Minnesota, the originating state.

New research shows contour farming still effective soil saver. Research this summer at the Northeast Illinois Agronomy Research Center at Elwood shows the great value of contour farming in holding water and preventing soil losses. On July 12-13, a 14 hour storm dumped 5.75 inches of rain on the Elwood field.

On corn land that has a 4 percent slope and is farmed up and down the slope, 1.64 acre-inches of water were lost by runoff. On the same field, corn farmed on the contour lost only .21 acre inch by runoff.

This 1.64 acre inches represents 186 tons of water for each acre compared with only 24 tons on the contoured corn rows. The saving of water on the contoured corn means that this water did not carry off soil and it was also available for later crop use.

The soil lost from corn farmed up and down the slope as a result of this storm amounted to 10 tons an acre, or over 100 times as much as that lost from corn land farmed on the contour.
